

Survey of Legislator Satisfaction with the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel

May 2014

Are you contacted by staff in a timely manner after opening your bill file?

Are bills provided in a timely manner?

Are your policy objectives met by the bill drafters?

How would you rate the helpfulness of drafters in discussing and addressing your interests and concerns?

Are your substitutes and amendments prepared in a timely and accurate manner?

How would you rate the effectiveness of professional staff in working with agencies, interested parties, and the public?

How would you rate the quality of your intern?

How would you rate the timeliness of research and information provided by OLRGC?

How would you rate the quality of research and information provided by OLRGC?

Is the information included in the interim mailing packet helpful and accessible?

Please rate the staff presentations at interim meetings.

Please rate staff support in facilitating interim meetings.

How would you rate the overall job performance of the Director, Michael Christensen?

How would you rate the overall job performance of the General Counsel, John Fellows?

How would you rate the services of the administrative staff (receptionist, secretaries)?

How would you rate the service of the OLRGC information staff?

All Analysts' and Attorneys' Scores as Percentage of Total

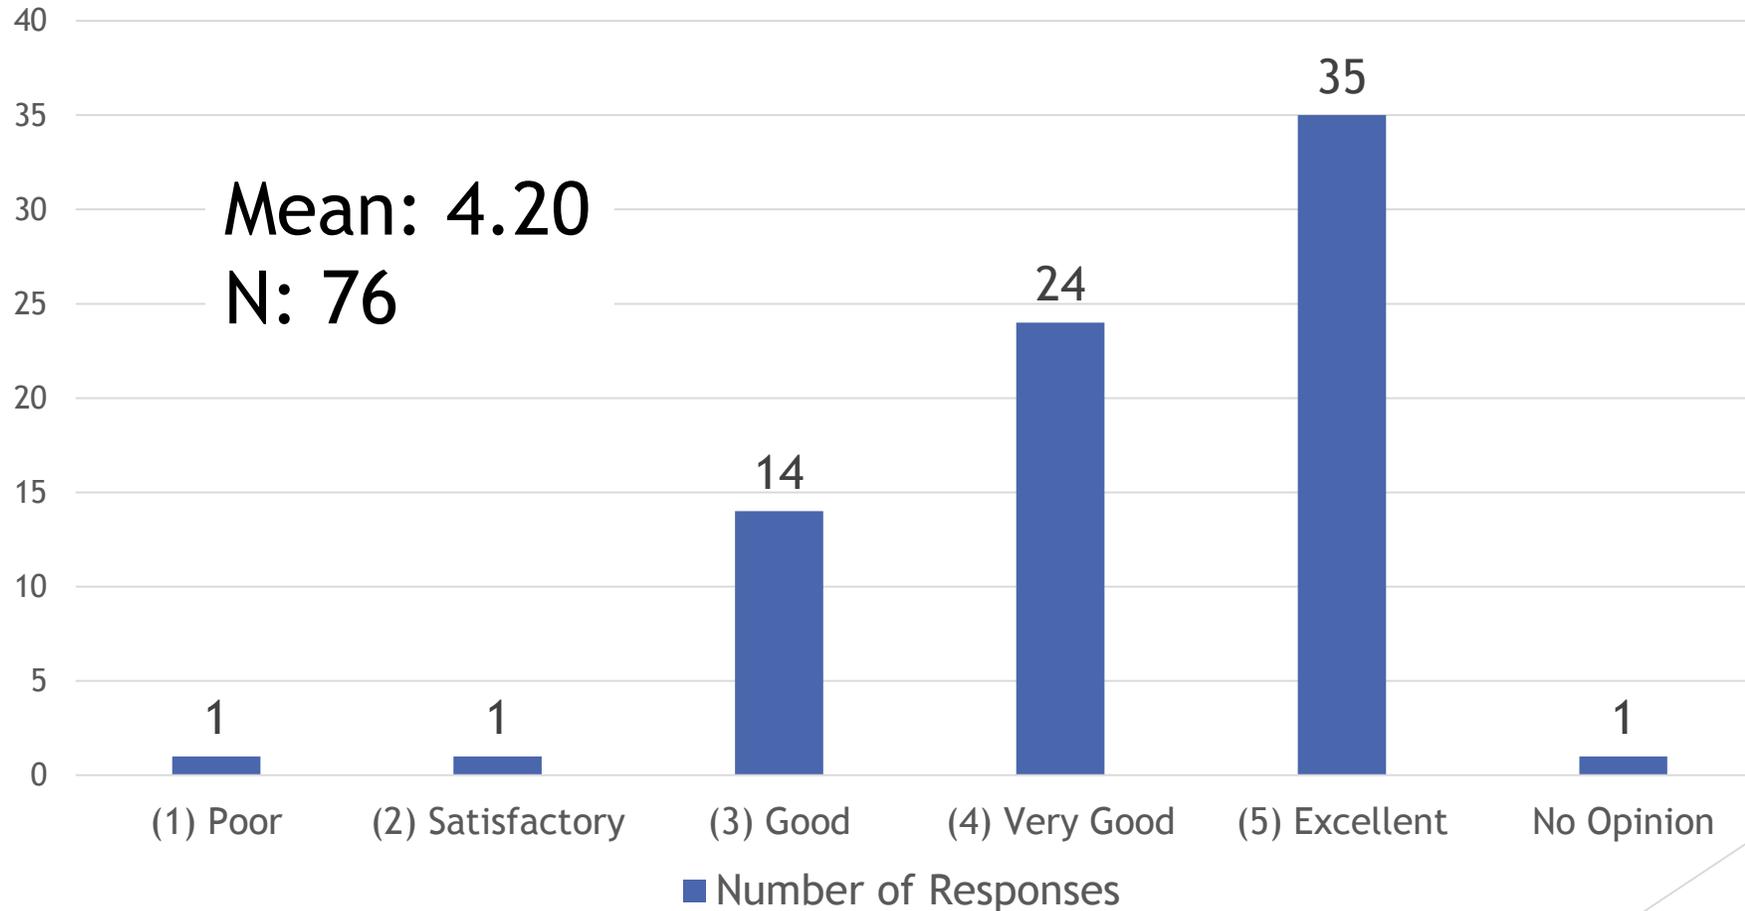

■ (1) Poor ■ (2) Satisfactory ■ (3) Good ■ (4) Very Good ■ (5) Excellent

How would you rate the usefulness of the legislative website?

How would you rate usefulness of the Interim Highlights?

How would you rate the usefulness of briefing papers?

How would you rate the usefulness of Bagels and Briefings?

Comments

Question 23: Do you have any positive comments or constructive criticism regarding any attorney?

- ▶ All have performed exceptional, I wonder how the rating would turn out if staff were to rate the Legislators.
- ▶ None, terrific job!
- ▶ The attorneys I have worked with are excellent, but many are overworked and cannot get to some requests for quite awhile because of their many other assignments.
- ▶ All are top notch professionals; we'd be at a great loss without them.
- ▶ Staff is absolutely amazing. True professionals.
- ▶ Generally speaking, my experience with the staff attorneys has been wonderfully positive. Any frustrations I have probably have more to do with personality than anything.
- ▶ We have an excellent group of people in LRGC.
- ▶ Professional and helpful. Great.

Comments

Question 25: Do you have any positive comments or constructive criticism regarding any policy analyst?

- ▶ All exceptional people.
- ▶ Thanks for all you do; you make my job a lot easier.
- ▶ Positive interaction with each. But many I have never worked with.
- ▶ These analysts are wonderful and essential help.
- ▶ Again, all great.
- ▶ Again, fantastic staff. Very impressed with the work ethic and work quality.
- ▶ Again, my experience is very positive.
- ▶ You have a wonderful STAFF!!
- ▶ One reviewer who is overloaded during the session can hold up the work of other drafters for a couple of weeks. That is too long in a 45-day session.

Comments (cont.)

Question 25: Do you have any positive comments or constructive criticism regarding any policy analyst?

- ▶ The vast majority of policy analysts do a remarkable job with the balancing act they must perform drafting conflicting legislation, working for people with opposing views and providing unbiased professional advice. However, there have been a few instances where certain analysts have had a difficult time keeping their personal opinions out of the drafting process and have even been a bit obstructive.
- ▶ Our staff is great. Thanks for all you do!
- ▶ We have great analysts.
- ▶ I am consistently impressed by our exceptional staff. I always feel they reach out and ensure they understand my intent on each bill. I am grateful for their support.
- ▶ Excellent group - very responsive.
- ▶ The ones I work with are great!